STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

10. The Plaintiff alleges that he was at all material times within said complaint a prisoner housed at Massachusetts Correctional Institution Cedar Junction located in South Walpole, Massachusetts.

11. Plaintiff alleges that he has been a solitary practitioner and follower of the International Fellowship Of ISIS a world wide organization with over 200,000 members for the past 19 years while incarcerated at this facility, a protected class recognized under Wicca Religion.

12. Plaintiff alleges the central belief system is Egyptian Paganism of Gods and Goddesses of the deities of ancient Egypt.

13. Plaintiff alleges that the central tenets require the use of a Tarot Card Deck containing 22 cards called major arcana and 56 cards called minor arcana for the purpose of path work along the Tree of Life which requires meditating upon the symbols for an esoteric meaning.

14. Plaintiff alleges that as a solitary practitioner he requires the use of written text for daily prays and rituals primarily from the books ISIS MAGIC, THE MYSTERIES OF ISIS, ISIS UNVEILED, THE SECRET DOCTRINE, GODS OF THE EGYPTIANS, BOOK OF THE DEAD...etc.

15. Plaintiff alleges that the use of his religious books teaches also which deities will assist him in healing, overcoming aggressive situations, relieving depression, increase creativity through visualization in assuming a godform.

16. Plaintiff alleges that fellow prisoners often inquired about the meaning of his religious beliefs and practices using the Tarot Deck which he explained the religious creed that "magicK is not something you do; magicK is something you are," that you must have a love for the natural world and reverence for nature, observe the seasonal changes and try and become one with nature which is just the outer teachings of the religion and the divine esoteric teachings and mysteries can only be found within yourself through mediation.

17. Plaintiff alleges that he purchased ten religious books and three Tarot Card Decks religious items central to his religious beliefs through his prison personal account from the religious order of the Theosophical Society; wiccan bookstore The LLevelly New Times also known as LLevellyn Publication; Dover Publication; Barnes and Noble Bookstore documented thru the years of 1989 till 1991.

18. Plaintiff alleges that as a solitary practitioner his possession of religious property was limited and the employment of symbolism within his ritual practices gave him a sense of personal connection to a divine life source with the use of his written text and Tarot Card deck.

19. Plaintiff further alleges that on or about October 15, 2002, he was told that he was being reassigned to lower housing security which he refused and was placed on administrative segregation awaiting action status keep-lock.

20. Plaintiff alleges that on or about October 16, 2002, he was told to pack his personal belongings and prepare to be transferred to the maximum security end of the prison.

21. Plaintiff alleges that on or about October 21, 2002, a stabbing took place within the unit he was located although he was not involved because he was locked in his cell during this incident.

22. Plaintiff further alleges that he was escorted out of his cell by Inner Perimeter Security for questioning since one of the combatants stumbled and fell in front of his cell complaining that he could not breath after being sprayed with a chemical agent and requested some water which plaintiff provided in a cup.

23. Plaintiff alleges that Sergeant Shebrew of Inner Perimeter Security repeatedly question him about the whereabouts of the weapon the combatant possessed during the altercation with the other inmate.

24. Plaintiff alleges that he told Sergeant Shebrew that he did not see any weapon and had only given the inmate a cup of water because he was visibly having problems breathing and the security video would collaborate his statement.

25. Plaintiff alleges that he was taken to the West Wing Segregation Unit (10 Block) for pending investigation.

26. Plaintiff further alleges that Inner Perimeter Security conducted a search of his cell and his property was inventory by Inner Perimeter Security and subsequently all packed up and sent to the property office for storage upon release from West Wing Segregation Unit.

27. Plaintiff alleges that on or about November 11, 2002, he was taken out of the West Wing Segregation Unit and place in a cell in the maximum security end of the prison he then received his property thereafter from Defendant MacKinnon without his personal religious property that consisted of ten religious books and three Tarot Card decks and other various religious items.

28. Plaintiff alleges that he sent a letter accompanied by two grievance complaints to then Deputy Commissioner Kathleen Dennehy concerning the confiscation of his religious property on November 11, 2002.

29. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant Ladouceur forward the letter and two grievance complaints to Defendant Fyfe who stamped them on November 13, 2002, as being received by the Institutional Grievance Office.

30. Plaintiff alleges that he also sent a letter to Administrative Assistant Joanne Paquin trying to resolve this problem in house as soon as possible without legal action.

31. Plaintiff alleges that between his conscience and the confiscation of his religious property depriving him of his right to worship as he was accustomed according to his sincerely held religious beliefs by Defendant MacKinnon he came under a tremendous amount of psychological and physical stress.

32. Plaintiff further alleges that on or about November 12, 2002, he spoke with Defendant Fyfe about the confiscation of his religious property by Defendant MacKinnon and that he was allowed to have the ten religious books and one Tarot Card deck under property regulations 103 CMR 403.10 (7), (d), (1996 ed.).

33. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant Fyfe informed him that he would check with Defendant MacKinnon to see which religious property he could have returned and would inform him later in the week.

34. Plaintiff further alleges that on or about November 15, 2002, he received a fraudulent summary findings of his grievance complaint under the direction of Defendant Elliott's fraudulent misrepresentation and Defendant Fyfe's reliance thereof stating his religious property was confiscated for reasons given as "the record indicate that you are catholic that contradicts your religious rights being violated. This emergency is denied.

35. Plaintiff alleges that under regulations governing inmate grievances 103 CMR 471.00 et seq, (1996 ed.), he filed an appeal to Defendant Allen on or about November 15, 2002, appealing Defendant Fyfe's fraudulent action.

36. Plaintiff alleges that on or about November 26, 2002, he received a fraudulent summary finding on his appeal from Defendant Allen stating that "your religious rights have not been violated. Whereas your religious designation is listed as catholic the articles removed from your cell were appropriately contraband."

37. Plaintiff further alleges that on or about January 9, 2003, under 103 CMR 471.00 et seq, (1996 ed.) governing inmate grievances he received a letter from Defendant Ladouceur stating, "please be advised that after a through review of the above-mention grievances and appeal I, concur with the institutional summary of the findings that your religious designation listed as catholic."

38. Plaintiff alleges that on or about March 4, 2005, that he sent a letter accompanied by an Inmate Religious Service Request Form to Commissioner Kathleen Dennehy who forwarded the material to Defendant Nolan for investigation and resolution.

39. Plaintiff further alleges that on or about March 30, 2005, that Defendant Nolan sent him a fraudulent summary finding stating, "according to Cedar Junction Property Department Records, there is no documentation to indicate that you had ever purchased any Tarot Cards or specific religious books, nor were these items in your property upon your admission. I consider this matter closed."

40. [A]11 administrative avenues have been exhausted by the Plaintiff.

56. Plaintiff alleges Defendant Elliott was responsible for accessibility to inmate files and inmate religious services and programs.

57. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant MacKinnon knew within (Inmate Property) 103 CMR 403.10 (7),(d), (1996 ed), Plaintiff was allowed possession of ten religious books and one Tarot Card deck.

58. Plaintiff further alleges that on or about November 13, 2002, Defendant MacKinnon conspired with Defendant Elliott regarding his admittance status and informed that it was listed as catholic and all his religious property within the property office should be contraband.

59. Plaintiff alleges that on the date of admittance he has no recollection of being asked what his religious beliefs were or volunteering information of his preference.

60. Plaintiff alleges that on or about November 14, 2002, Defendant

Fyfe contacted Defendant MacKinnon in regarding Plaintiff filed grievance complaint concerning confiscation of his religious property that included ten religious books and one Tarot Card deck and was informed to contact Defendant Elliott who intentionally issued a deceitful statement that Defendant Fyfe relied upon in his decision making process.

61. Plaintiff alleges that the malicious concerted acts of Defendant Allen and Ladouceur in failing to remedy the injury knew that there was no policy by the Department of Correction requiring him to strictly adhere to any religious beliefs system where he had not requested any special program or diet requiring the admission of his religious beliefs. (Inmate Religious Services and Programs), (1996 ed).

62. Plaintiff further alleges that the malicious act of conspiring by Defendant MacKinnon with Elliott resulted in the confiscation and destruction of his religious property of ten religious books and one Tarot Card deck without due notice along with all records pertaining to him possessing religious property including ten religious books and one Tarot Card deck was concerted for the sole purpose of depriving him of his free exercise of religious beliefs a violation of (Inmate Property) 103 CMR 403.00 et seq, (1996 ed.) an injury in fact under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

RE: INMATE RELIGIOUS SERVICE REQUEST FORM (APPEAL)

Dear Commissioner Dennehy:

I am sending this inmate religious service request form to appeal to you in hopes that you can resolve the issue of the confiscation of my approved on-person religious property per DOC regulations and policies allowing the possession of my Tarot Card Deck and my Ten Religious Books in hopes that they will be returned back to me so that I may all items were allowed into the institution by the property office.

The confiscation of my property took place on November 11, 2002, during a transfer to Ten Block and has not been returned and I'm requesting them back since DOC property policy allowed the possession of One Tarot Card Deck and Ten Religious Books or any books for that matter and should have been returned immediately at the time of my release from ten block.

I thank you for your time and consideration and appreciate your assistance in this matter and grant this inmate religious service request form to resolve this issue.

Sincerely,

David Williams

MCI-Cedar Junction

Dear Mr. Williams:

Please be advised that Commissioner Dennehy has referred your matter to me regarding your property issue.

According to the Cedar Junction Property Department Records, there is no documentation to indicate that you had ever purchased any tarot cards or specific religious books, nor were these items in your property upon your admission.

I consider this matter closed.

Sincerely,

David Nolan
Superintendent
